Spatial Neglect: What to Do, How & Why

We are excited to have A.M. Barrett, M.D. as our guest speaker.

Dr. A.M. Barrett is a behavioral neurologist and neurorehabilitationist, and studies spatial cognition, right brain rehabilitation, and unawareness of deficit. She serves currently as chair of neurology at UMass Chan Medical School, UMass Memorial Health and chief of neurology at Central Western Mass, VA Healthcare System. An Indiana native, Dr. Barrett graduated from NYU School of Medicine and completed her neurology residency at Columbia University Medical Center/The Neurological Institute. In addition, she completed a post-doctoral fellowship in behavioral neurology and neuropsychology at the University of Florida.
